

CALCampus Copyright Infringement Policy for Students

All CALCampus materials, including, but not limited to, all course materials and documents posted on our CMS and web site, are copyrighted and owned by CALCampus. Copyrighted materials are legally protected from unauthorized distribution by anyone or any entity who does not own the copyright.

A current or former CALCampus student who has provided any of our materials to a third party (such as Course Hero, CampusBuddy, Fratfolder, and/or any other online location) is liable for penalties for copyright infringement.

A current student who is found to be involved, in any way, in copyright infringement of CALCampus materials will be immediately expelled from CALCampus, without a refund, and any transcripts from prior courses will be withheld until the copyrighted materials have been totally removed from the Internet by the student.

A prior student who is found to be involved, in any way, in copyright infringement of CALCampus materials will have any transcripts from prior courses withheld until the copyrighted materials have been totally removed from the Internet by the student.

Current and former students who are involved in copyright infringement of CALCampus materials will not be allowed to enroll in any CALCampus courses in the future.
